THE FARMER
Lewisville High School
1974

Boomtown U.S.A.

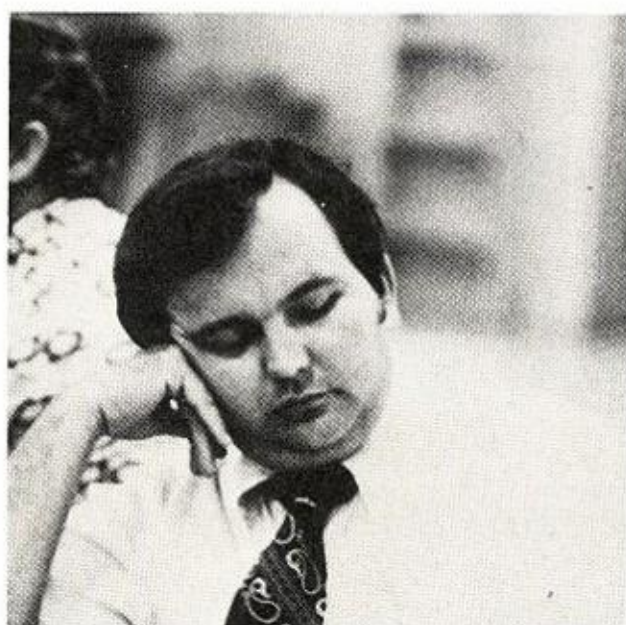

When hometown parades were family affairs, the city was out in the country. Now look in any direction and you'll see rooftops — hundreds of them. RFD Lewisville has come to town and "the times they are a changing."

Finding a New Way

A bigger town means more young people with their own way of doing things. From Earl Scruggs to Alice Cooper the contrast between young and old is the sign of today. But as today becomes yesterday, each person learns his own thing is a part of us all.

Becoming a Real McCoy

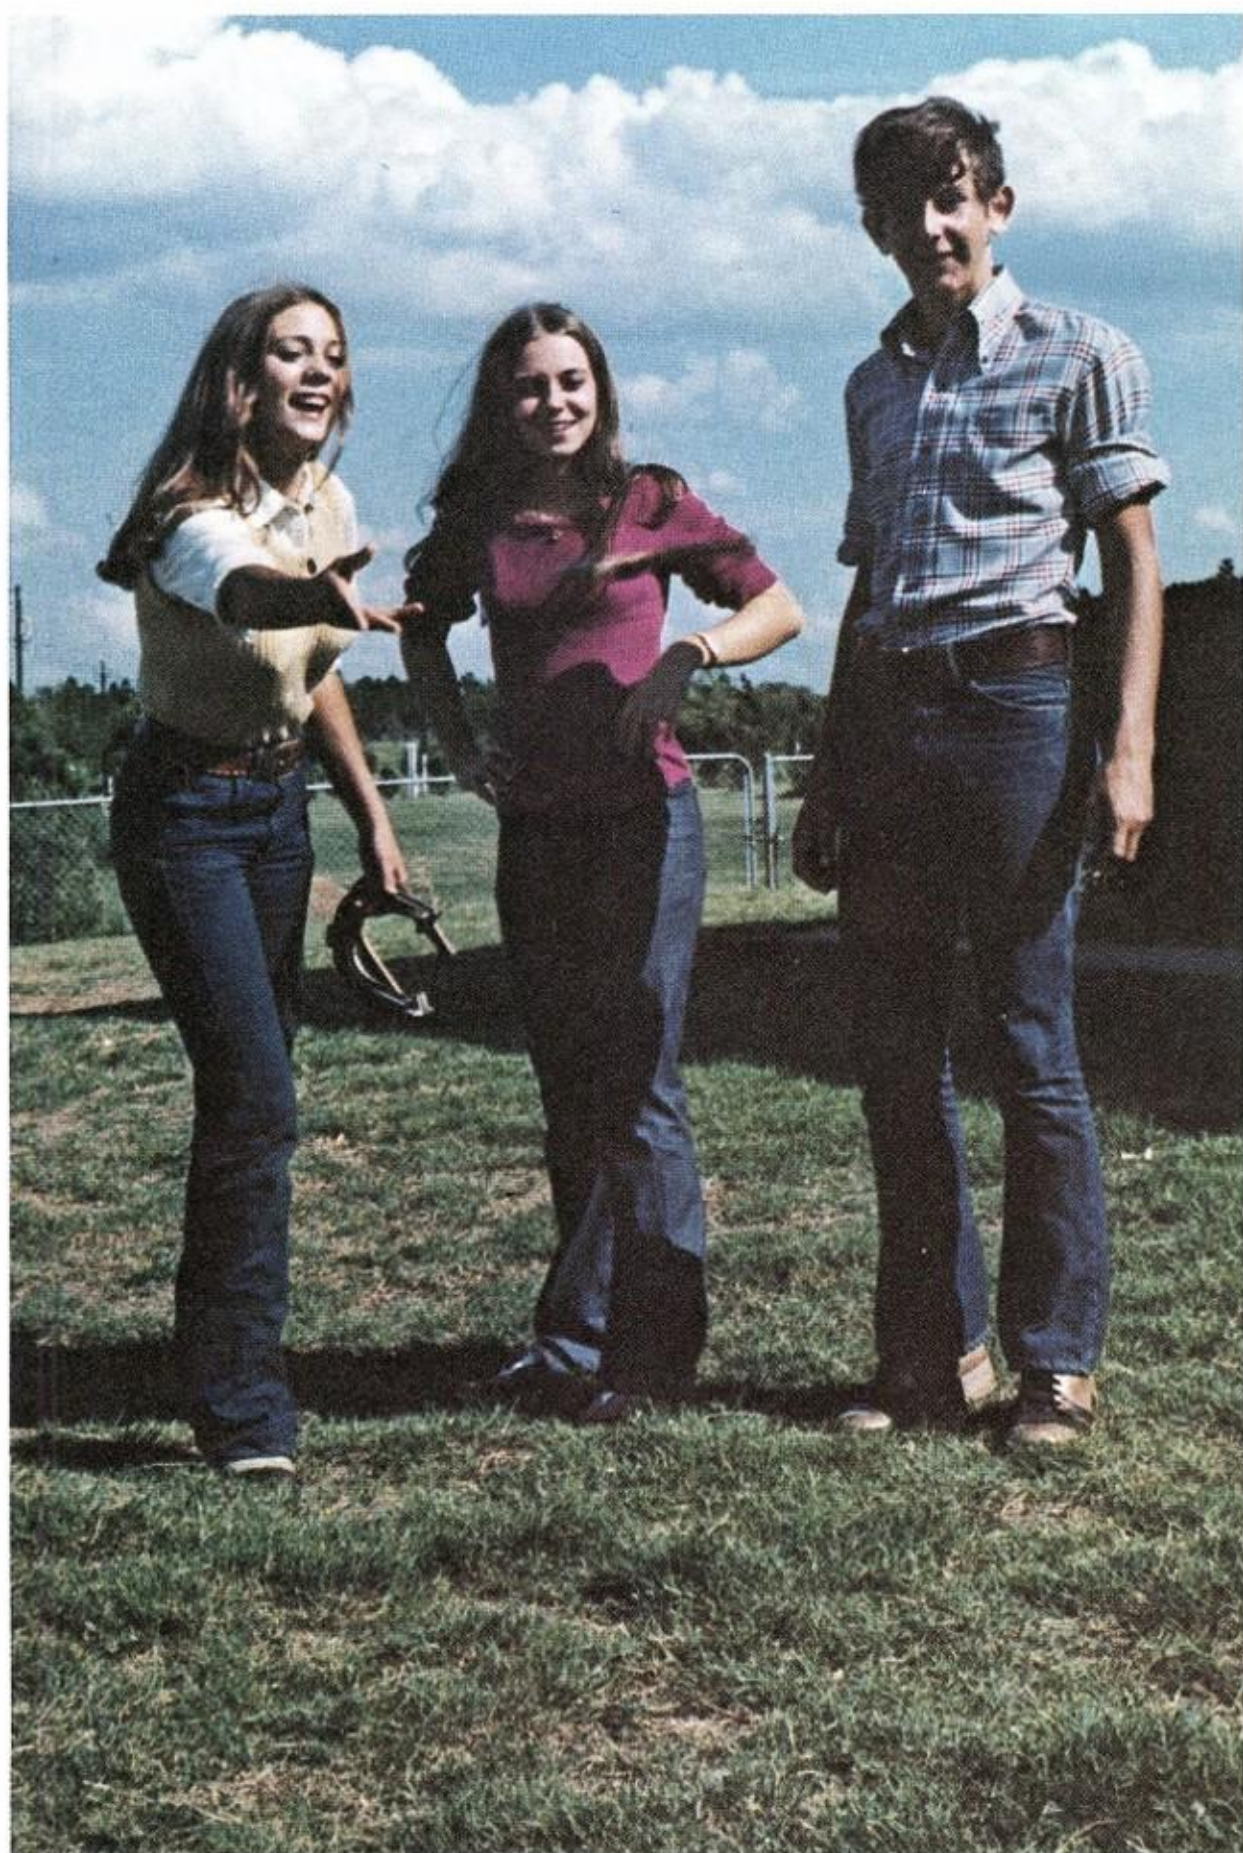

One of the funny things about learning to live together is understanding how divided we are. Our faces, our clothes, our fads all proclaim us individuals, while we walk in the same shoes, going different directions.

The Future Is Now

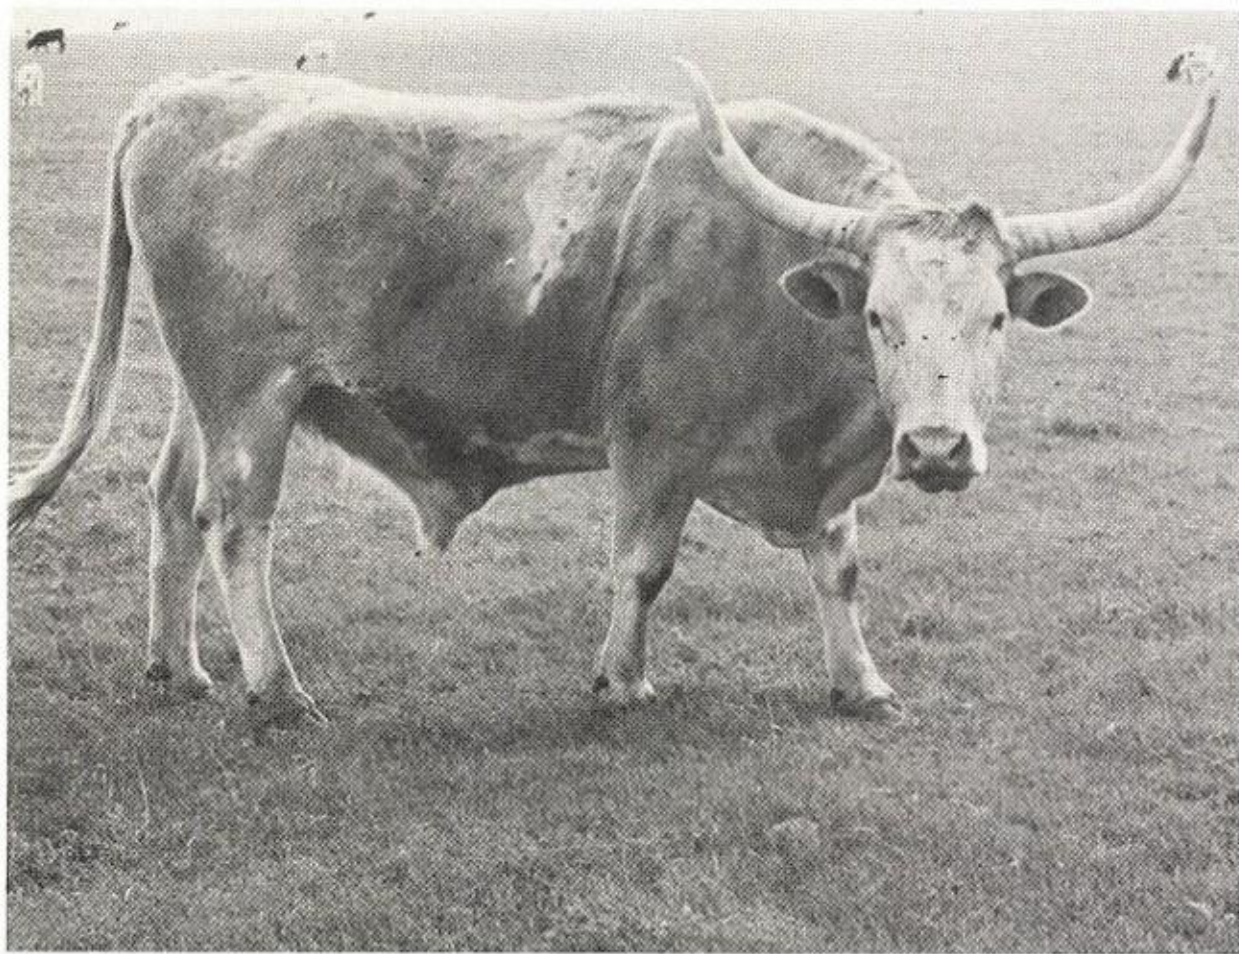

It is always now and never yesterday or tomorrow, but yesterday's fun and tomorrow's promise keep the "good ole days" alive in us. So traditions like picnics, football games, and just taking it easy are still important to the everyday people.

A Boot and Spur Tradition

For this bunch, rodeo is number one. taking their cue from those rowdy Texans who drove Longhorns to Abilene, these folks wrangle just for the heck of it. It takes some kind of person to ride a brahma or put a halter on a wild horse, but this is how the Lewisville ropers get their "kicks."

Focusing on the Good Times

Being grown up. Getting out on your own. No rules, nobody telling you what to do. Great — except fairs, kites, and silly stuff are sometimes more fun than being up in the air over adult worries.

A Night to Remember

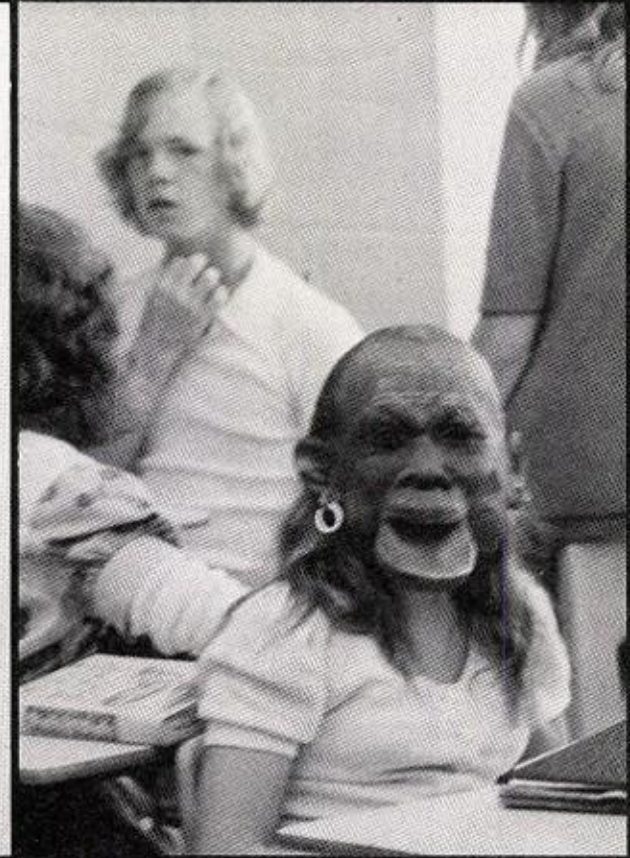

A week before homecoming, people were grabbing all kinds of ideas for class floats. No matter how you said it though, the idea was the same — the Warriors were in big trouble. With all the plans, there seemed to be little time to get everything done; although for three senior girls, the week took forever. When the day's confusion was over, Connie Boyd reigned as queen, the seniors finally won a float contest, the Farmers clobbered South Grand Prairie and the exes remembered times gone by.

It's Trick or Treat Time

With trick or treat and things to eat, everyone was out for a good scare. Even teachers had the nerve for a good time. While the little people were seen running from door to door with a big bag of goodies to take home.

Ye Ole Yule Time

Without the traditional lights Christmas in '73 wasn't quite the same. But with thoughts of Santa Claus and 13 glorious holidays ahead we managed to overlook the energy crisis. The prospects for the New Year hold slowing down to 55, taking life easier and staying closer to home.

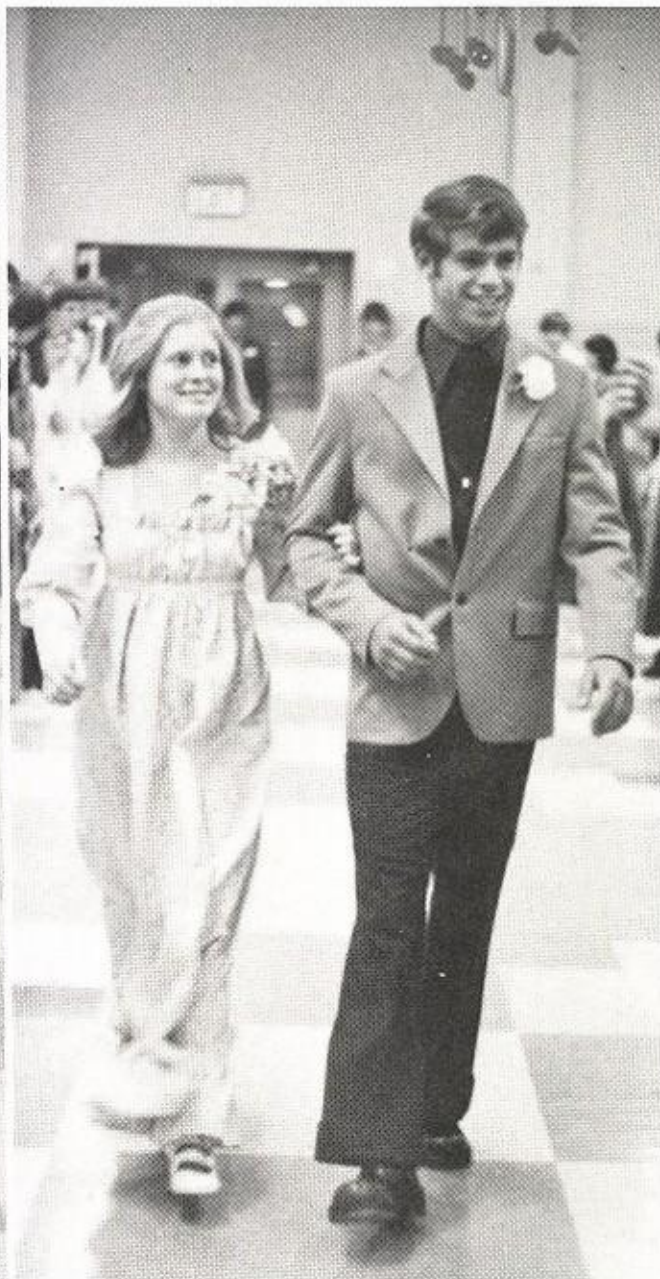

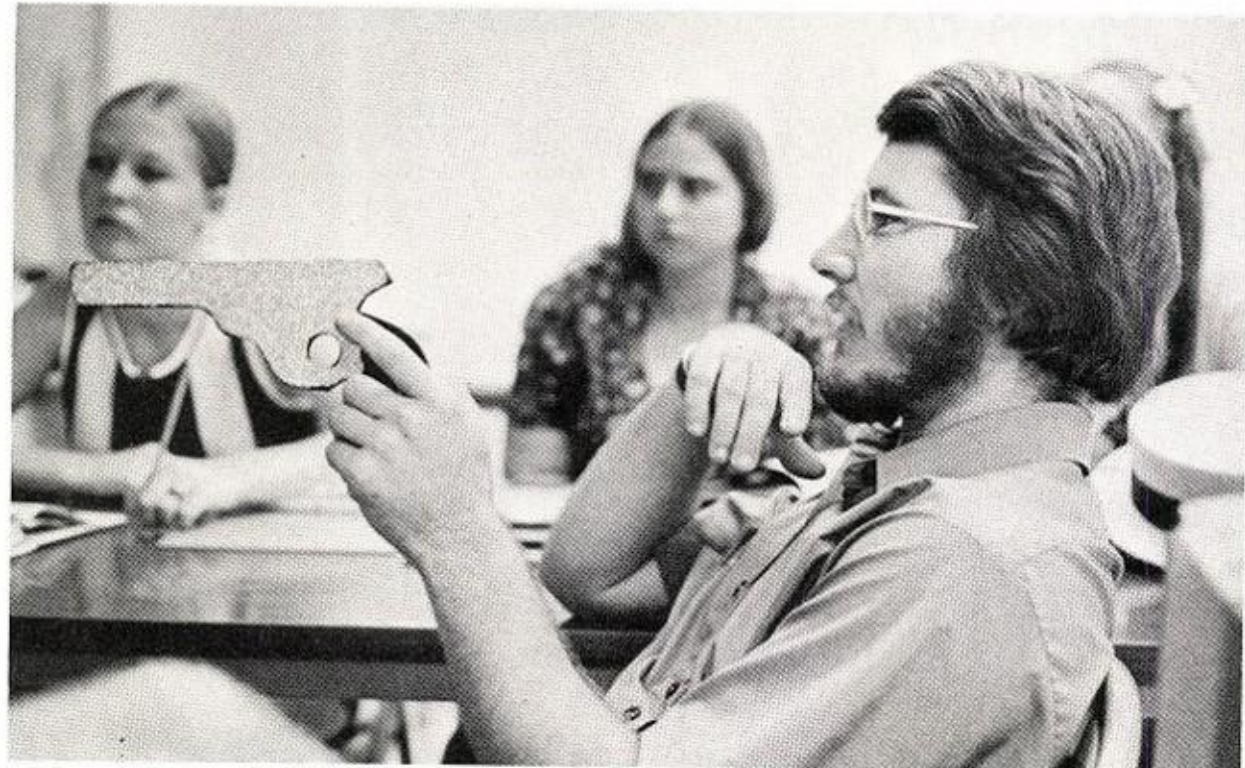

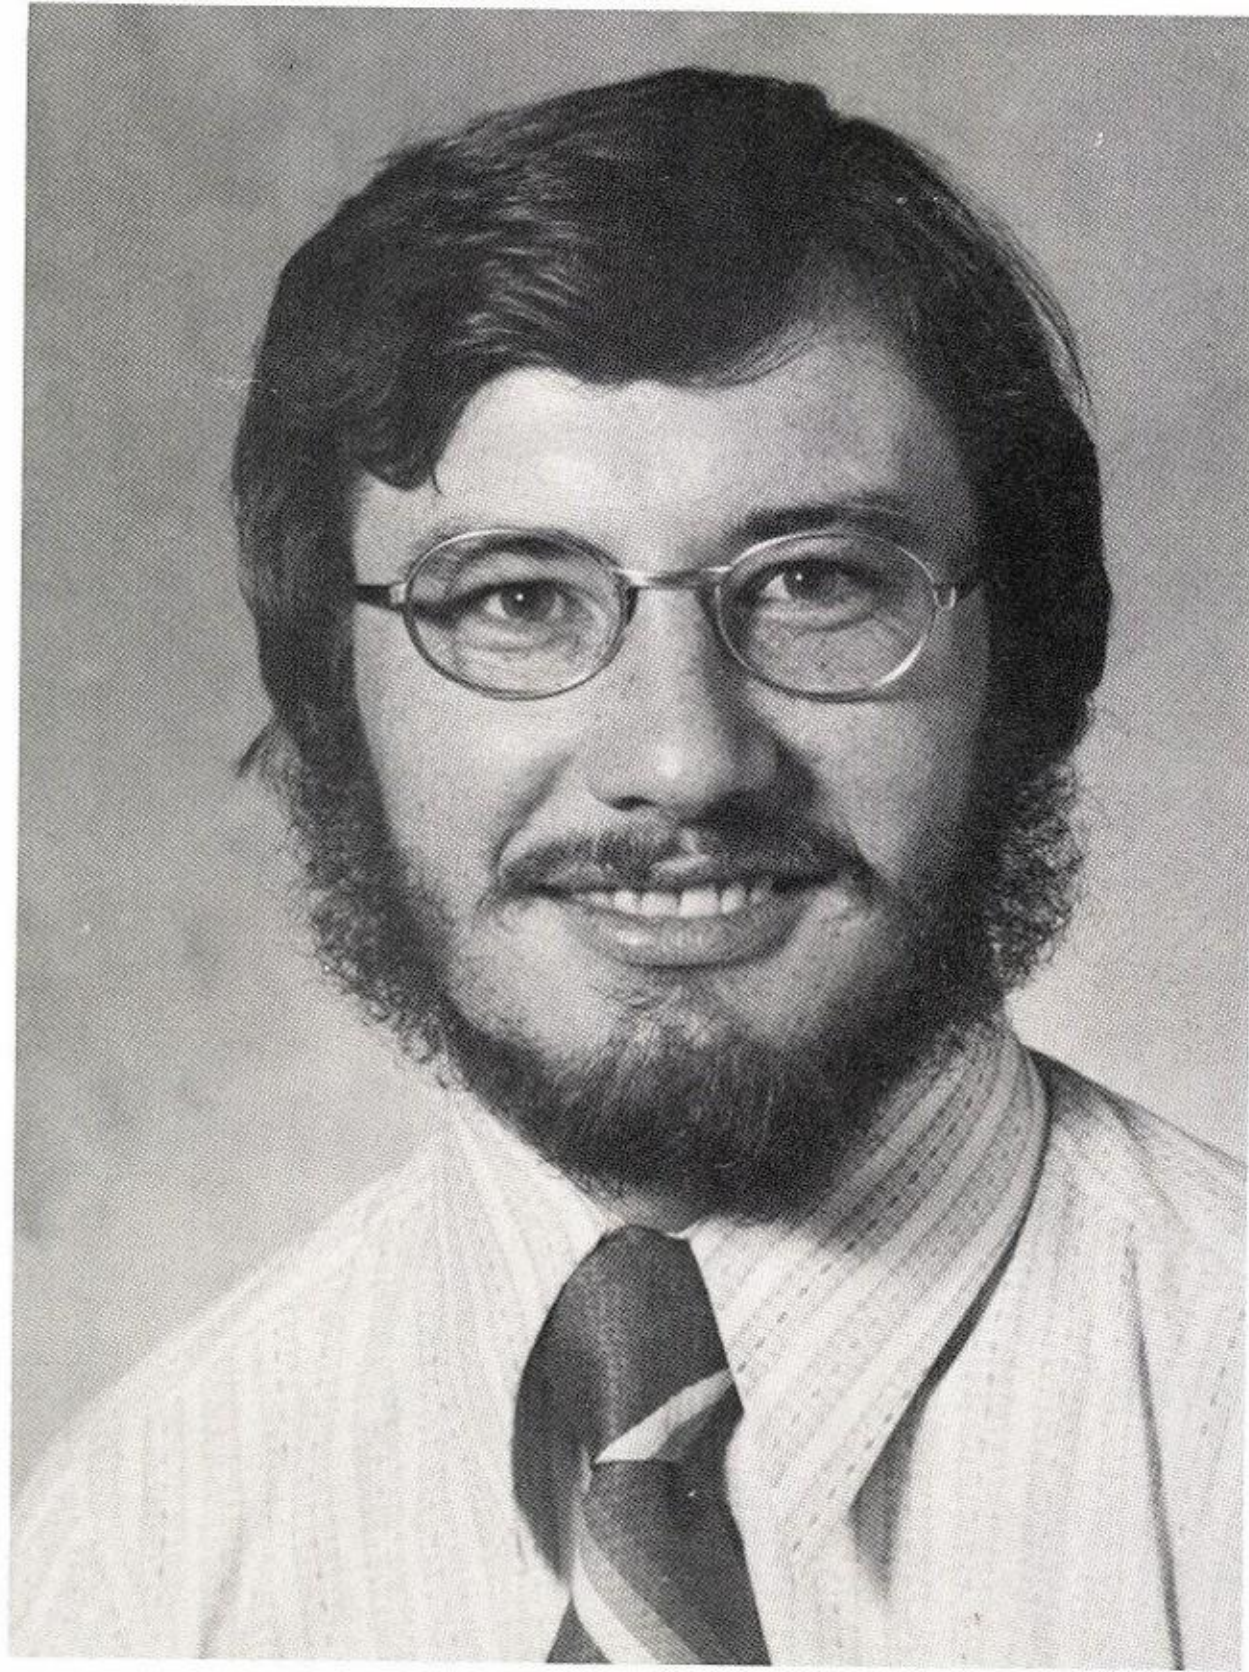

Be My Baby Tonight

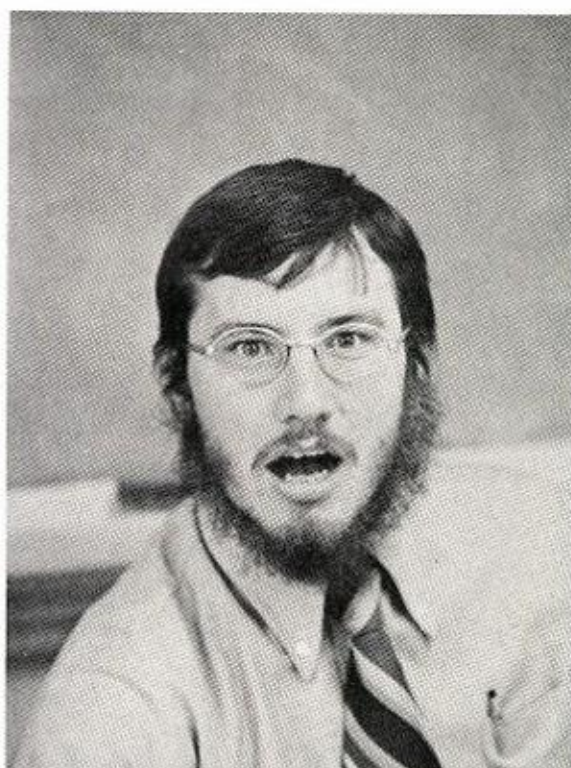

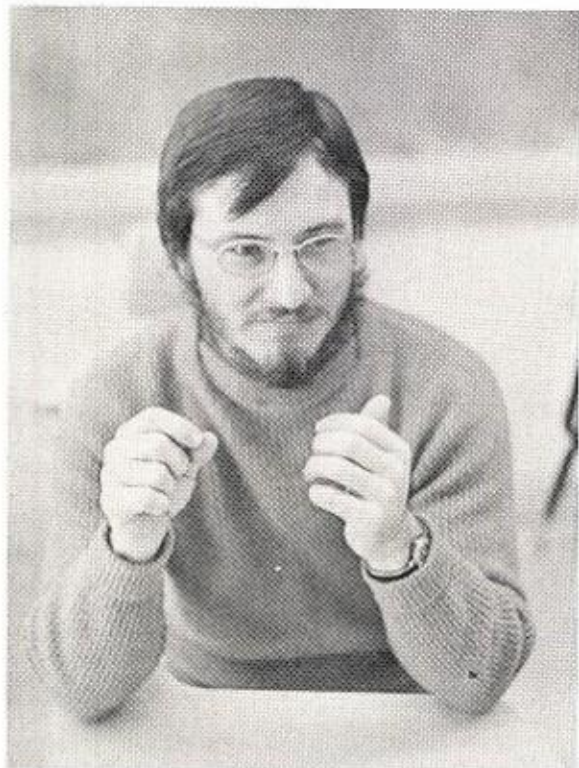

Valentine's Day brought out the best of everyone as freshmen Debbie Hasten and Darrell Moseley were crowned King and Queen. Other couples nominated were sophomores Shirley Davis and Bo Stewart, juniors Jackie Bennett and Mark Seaman, seniors Carrie Bailey and Joe Martin. Even Thelma Wilson and Guy Proctor spread a little extra love throughout the halls of LHS.

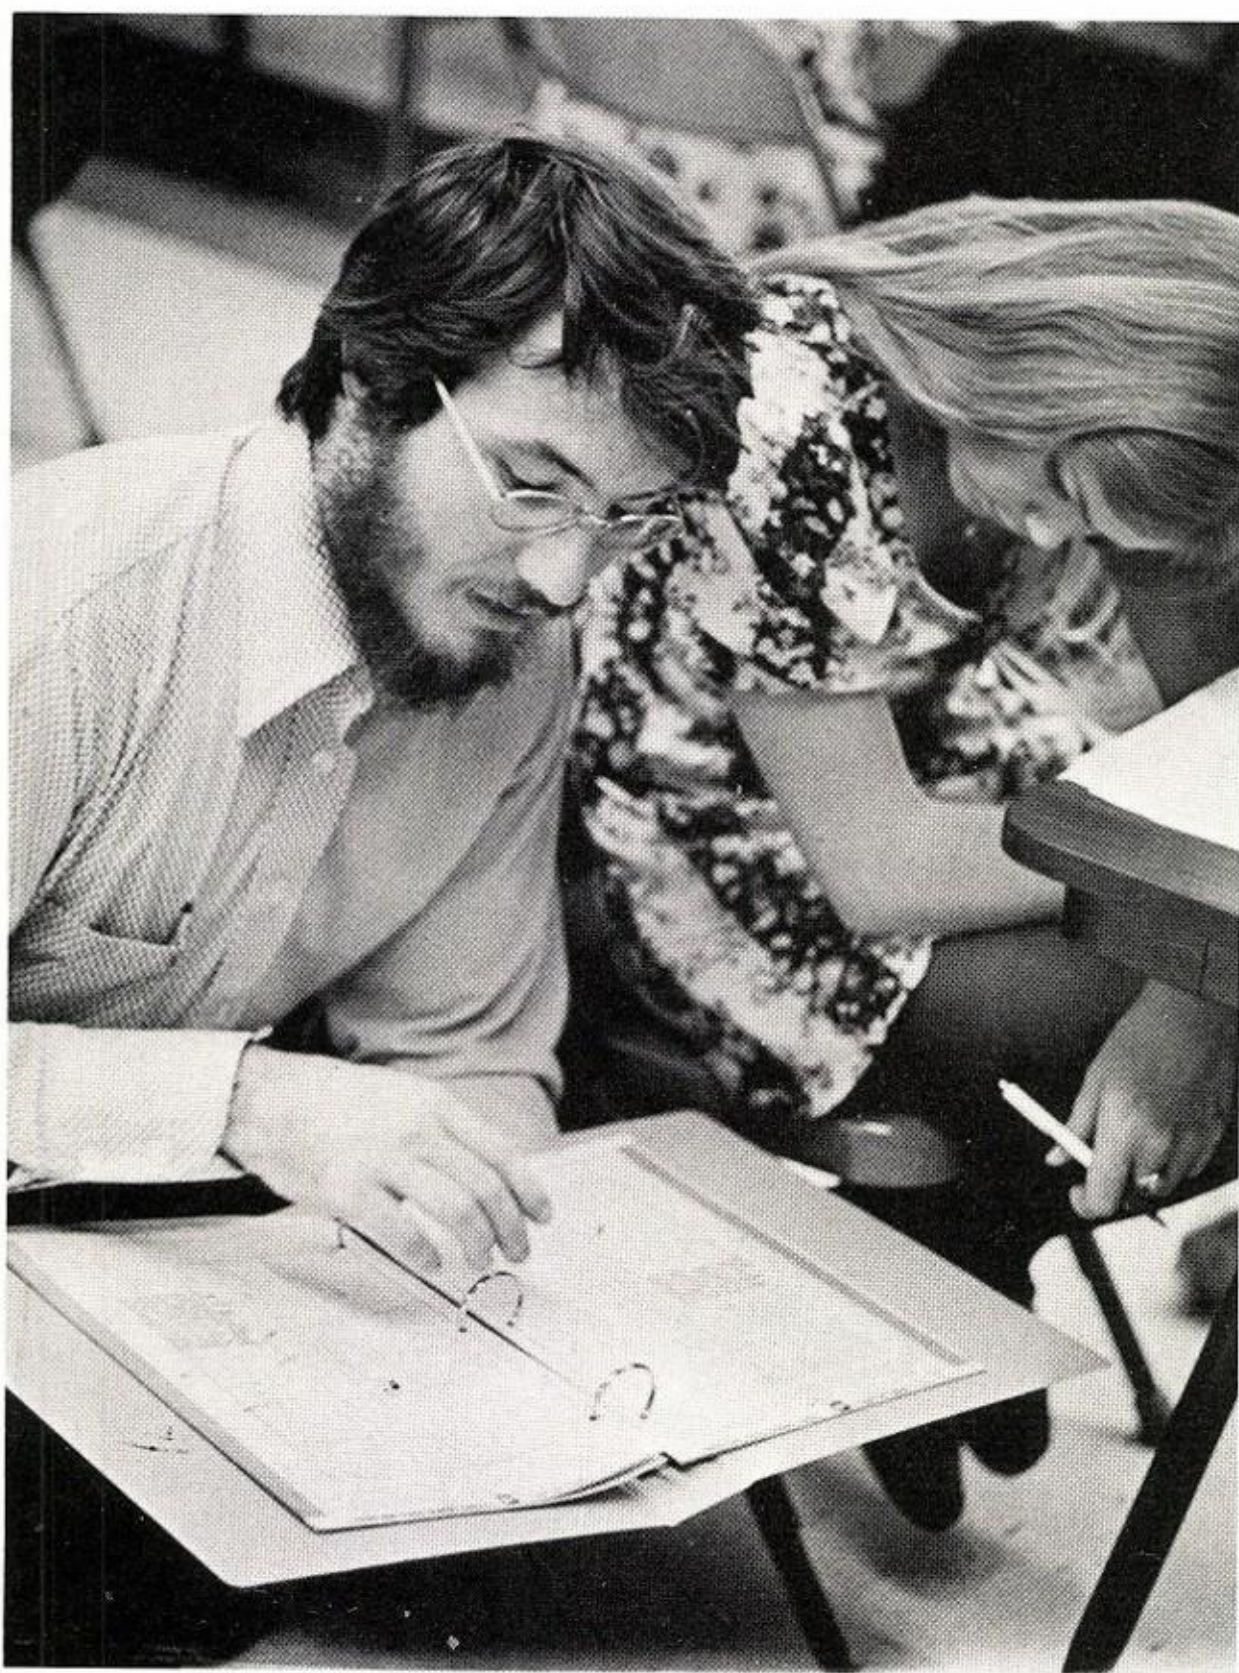

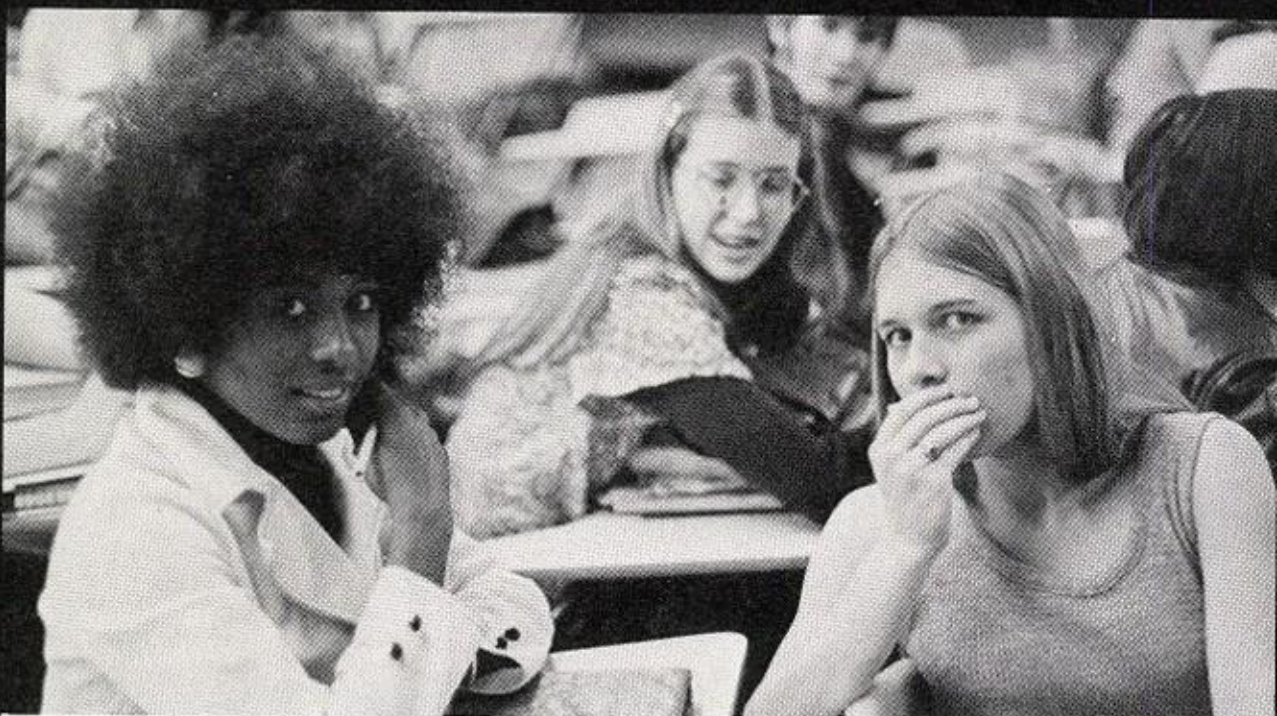

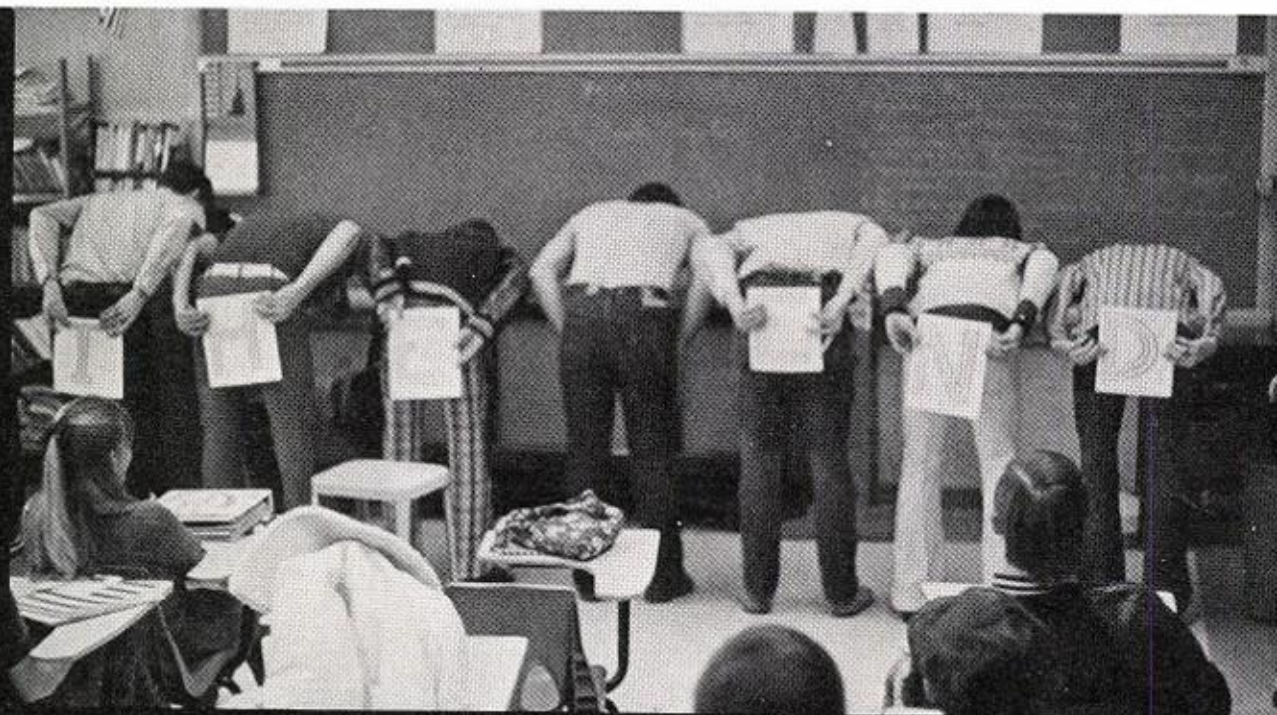

Between the annual, photography, and the newspaper, he doesn't seem to mind all the other everyday hassles of teaching. Through the years he's become more than just a teacher, but a companion. To some he's known as just plain "Butch." For his years of putting up with us, we the staff dedicate the 1973-74 Farmer to

Every Face in the Crowd Counts

The agony of it all — Janna Talley after the McKinney game (left). Diane Bernard (lower right) whistles while the gang below adds soul power to the pep rally (bottom).

Oh Those Crazy

Head cheerleader Connie Boyd (above) leads the way as cheers, and high kicks keep that Farmer Spirit up (L-R). Julie Walker, Vicki Kirkpatrick, Connie Boyd, Carrie Bailey, Deidre Fitzpatrick, Ronda Keahey, Kathy Stewart, and Kay McCurley. Taking a ride in the rodeo parade and teasing the guys about their nicknames keep the girls busy and on their toes (opposite).

. . . Cheerleaders!

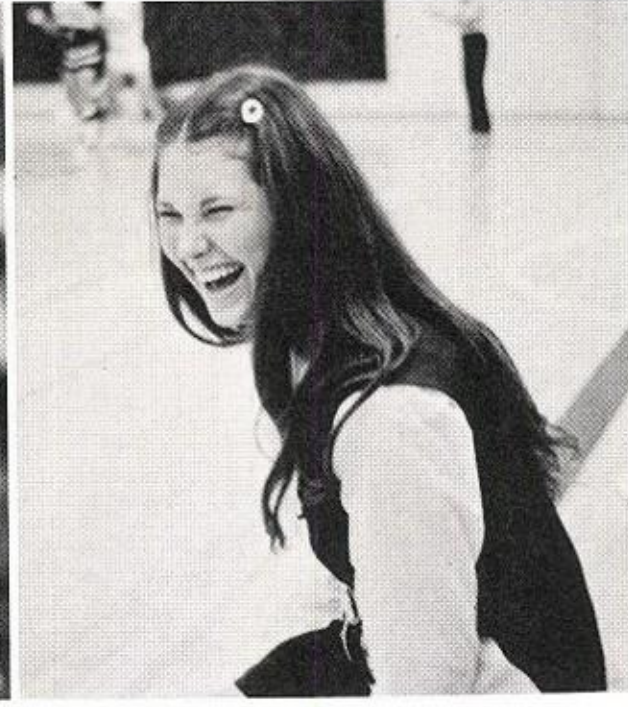

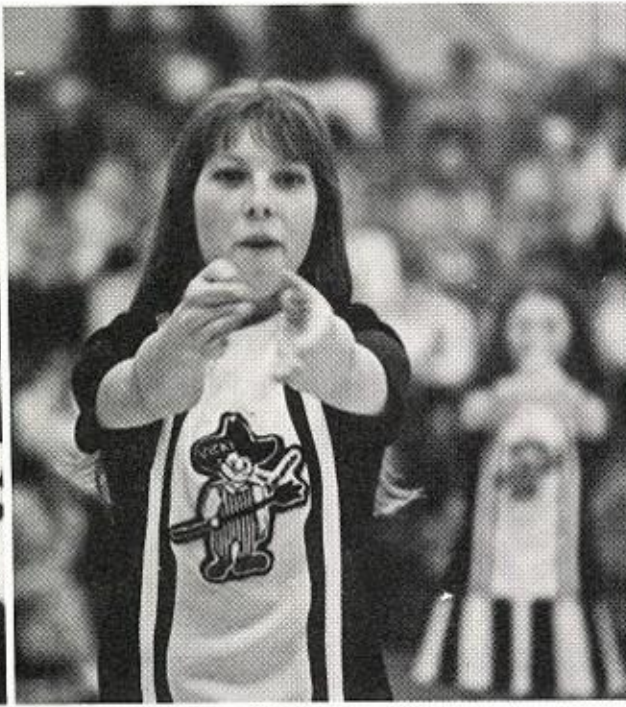

Being a leader and being able to go when "you're just about gone" is at times an impossible job, but these girls don't seem to mind as they spend most of their time practicing, making signs, decorating and just keeping the rest of us on the ball. Building Big John's spirit is their job. These yell-leaders have that something special that makes wearing maroon and white more than just a symbol of game day.

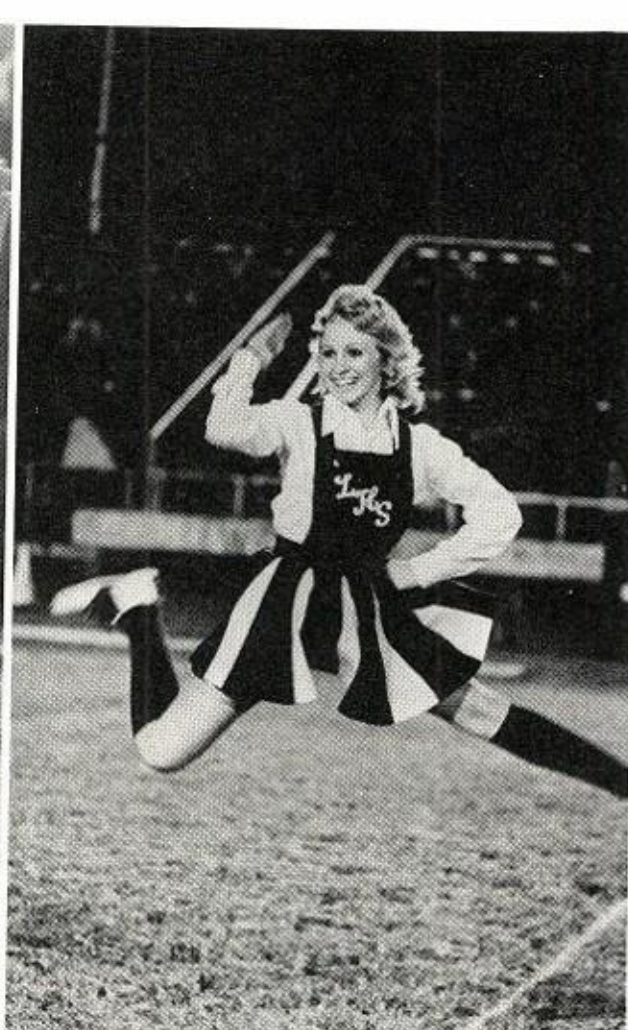

From Agony to Ecstasy

There's nothing so much fun as cheering for a winner and were we ever winners! But the real test of pride comes when you are on the short end of the scoreboard. When you want to win so badly that you can't stand it and yet never lose faith in defeat . . . When you can manage to choke a smile through tears, then you believe. You are a cheerleader.

The Farmer Band Is More Than Music

Another year of musical memories . . . Long hours of practice learning a new show . . . The anxiety of countermarching in the wrong place . . . The satisfaction of a good halftime show . . . A shaky Bonham halftime . . . A tension filled moment at contest . . . Shaving cream and water fountains at band camp . . . The fun and not so fun all added up to ending AAA competition on a high note . . .

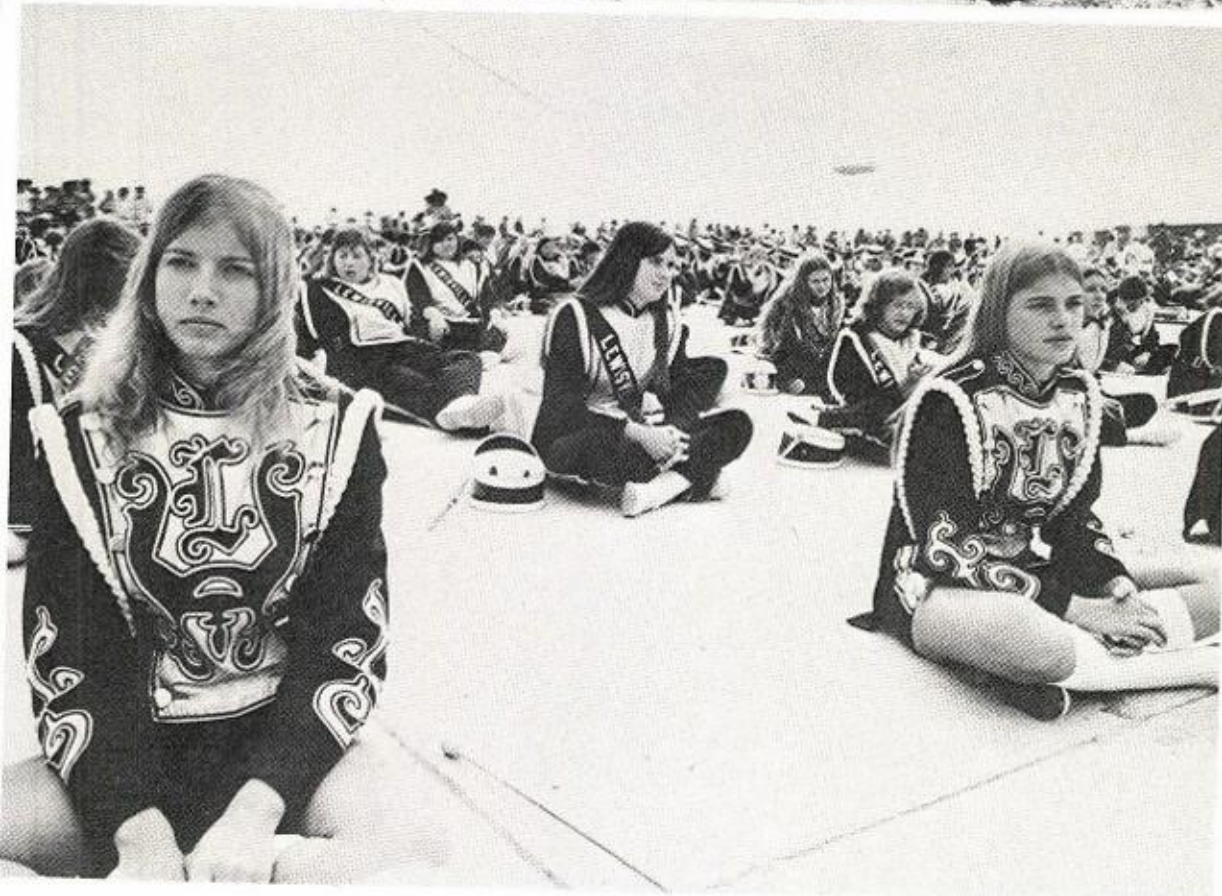

With a slightly larger group this year, the band underwent a couple of changes. Band camp was a new thing and after a successful marching season it proved the week of hard work had been worth the time. Between practice sessions and Friday night performances, these musicians still found time to join other bands at the opening of the D/FW airport.

Never a Dull Moment

Bandsmen Leave AAA in Style

Starting a week late on the contest show didn't keep the band from doing their best. With Cindy's leadership and Russell's guidance, they led the band with dignity and pride. All the 7:30 practices and sweltering Tuesday and Thursday practices didn't seem worthwhile until the longest seven minutes in the world were over and judges recognized Lewisville as one of the best in the west.

Sitting on his drum, David Berryman (top left) wonders what he's doing at Birdville Stadium while Billy Rubey (top right) knows this is no time to let his hair down. Cathy Hill and Lynn Boenker (center left) call out other band's results as Sharna Mihleader (center right) waits for Lewisville's own results. Sweepstakes Band performing the 1973 contest show (center) while Shirley Davis, Suzy Schlegel, and Jackie Bennett (bottom) await the dreaded moment. After making it 10 in a row, the band shows it's pride by forming a "1" at Haltom City (above).

Concert Season is a time of settling down from all that marching and turning to more serious music. Being a member of the All-Region band or making a 1 on a solo or ensemble are just a few of the joys of the Concert season. During this time the Symphonic and Concert bands put aside Friday night worries to go about the business of becoming better musicians and to strive for their goal of making that Sweepstakes complete.

A Single Minded Effort Pays Off

The Farmerettes Take on a New Look

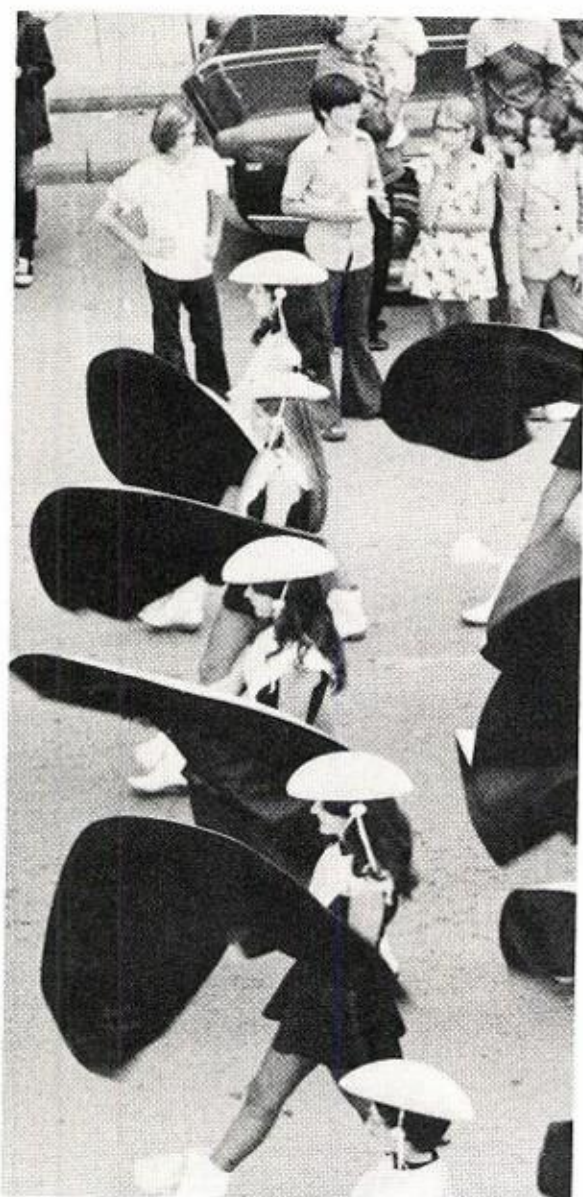

This year the Farmerettes decided even tradition needs a little change. New style and lots of versatility, along with gaining a new sponsor, escorts and mascot (Little Lulu), made for an exciting year of trying new ideas.

Anything Worth Doing Is Worth Doing Well . . .

. . . With a Smile

Different outfits each week added to making halftime a part of the game. But Friday nights were only a small part of what these 55 gals gave to make the show complete.

Anxious Smiles and Happy Tears Highlight a Year of Performing

For the first time in their history, the drill team got the whole gang together for a reunion. Kids of all ages gathered to revive long practice sessions, the thrill of performances, the captain's shrill whistle, the discipline, the friendships and best of all, the fun of being a Farmerette.

ALL DISTRICT: Durham, Shipman, Martin, Rice, Voss, and Tharp. 2nd Team: Winget, Angeli, Cade.

ALL STATE: Rice, Cade, Voss, and Tharp.

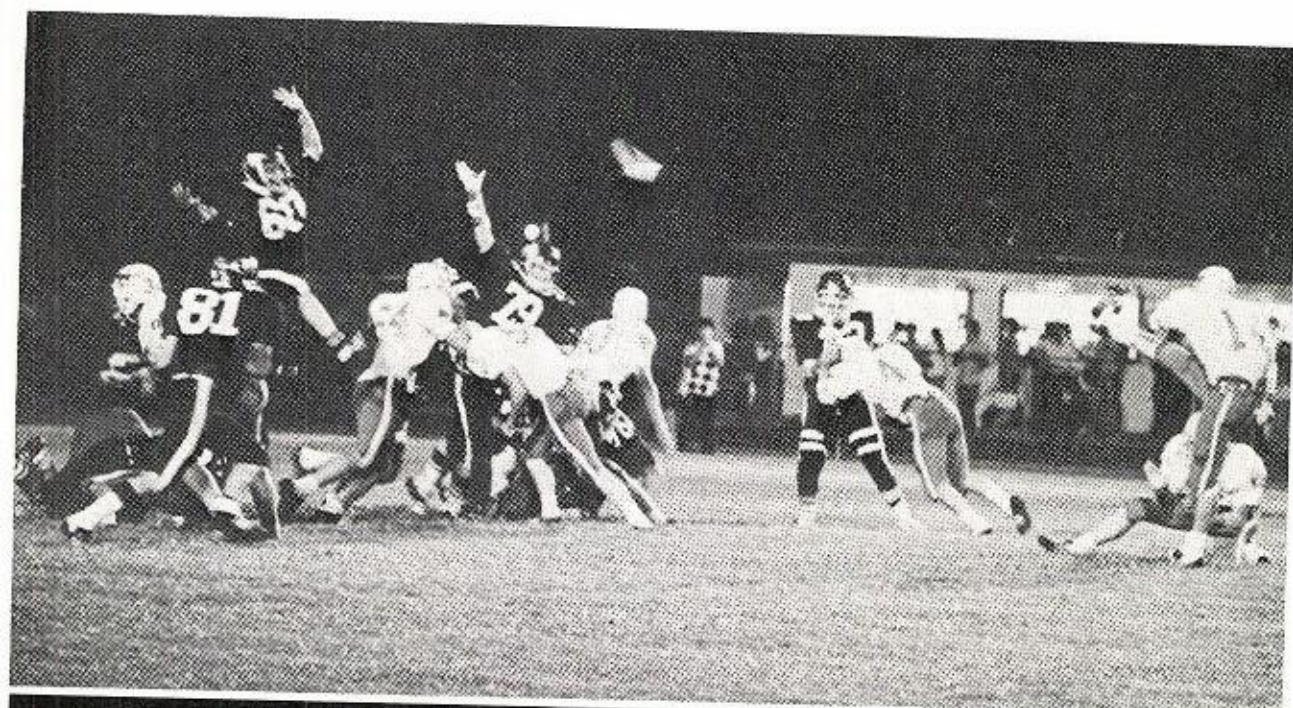

ALL AMERICAN: Rice.

With a top ranking in the state and a crew of returning lettermen, the Farmers burst on the scene ready to avenge the loss in the state finals last year. Opening wins against Boswell and Waxahachie got things rolling. Lewisville takes the field to open the season before tailback Paul Rice (41) rips the Pioneer defense (above). Fullback Mike Nichols (35) thunders for yardage as slotback Randy Cade (12) makes a reception (below).

Lewisville began to pick up momentum for the conference games by clobbering Grapevine and the Burleson Elks. But with district play only a week away, the coaches still worried about eliminating a few nagging mistakes. Defensive end Richard Hunter (81) booms in to block a Mustang punt (right). Quarterback Bo Stewart (7) wheels to give the ball to tailback Joe Bob Holden (44) in the Grapevine game (below).

Each Victory Makes the Weeks Fly By

Playing for 'Keeps' Doubles the Fun

Lewisville opened 6-AAA competition with the tough South Grand Prairie Warriors and the halftime score was a 16-13 shocker with the Farmers barely ahead. But behind Rice's 4 touchdowns, Lewisville went on to win 38-19. Cunningham (32) gets to the bottom of things as the defense stops a Ram ball carrier (top right). Terry Cade (56) is through for the night after spraining his ankle (center right).

Down in the trenches, the Blast-ers line up inside the Berkner 10 (above). Bishop, Cunningham, Cade, and Hunter are hot in pursuit on a rainy night (left). The night ended on a happy note though as the Farmers won their sixth game in a row.

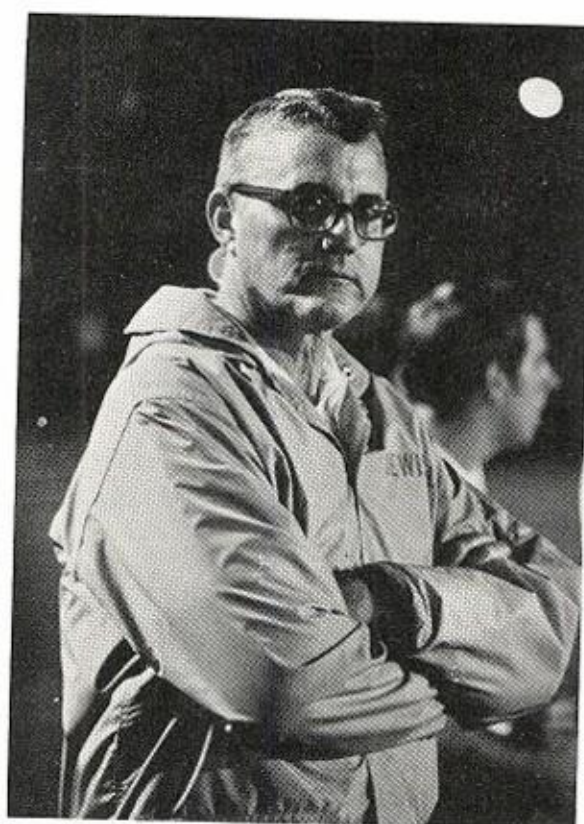

With four games remaining, some Farmer fans were beginning to worry more about Mt. Pleasant, Brownwood, and Gregory-Portland than our remaining opponents. Fortunately the players did not take all that "State Bound" talk to heart and concentrated on the job at hand. In the next two weeks Lewisville bombed North Garland 40-18 and despite a sluggish evening, beat Bonham there for the first time since anyone can remember. The lineup: Voss (1), Bishop (2), and Tarrant (3) at Bonham. (above). Cunningham (32), McKamy (52), and Bowden (73) close in at Bonham (below).

Head coach Bill Shipman surveys the action in Bonham (above).

After eight victories, the real season finally came — for the Farmers still had to beat Gainesville and those McKinney Lions to make the playoffs. Against the Leopards, Lewisville had what was probably their best game of the year. The defense held Gainesville to six points while the “Big O” rumbled for 48. The showdown in Collin County was not set. Angeli (82) goes sky high after scoring on the Leopards (above) while the defense closes in on a Gainesville fumble (top right). The offense watches the action against Gainesville (center right) as Dave Hamby (74) finds the McKinney ball carrier just out of reach (bottom right).

One Showdown Ends It All

During that final week, emotions were running high on both sides. By Friday night you could feel the electricity in the air in McKinney. They were bent on revenge and Lewisville had its sights on the state title. But when the even match-up was over, one unbelievable squib kick proved to be the difference. It was all over until next year for the Fighting Farmers. Rice moves close to the score (above) as Voss (1) celebrates a touchdown against Gainesville (lower left) while Tharp (79) leaves the field at McKinney.

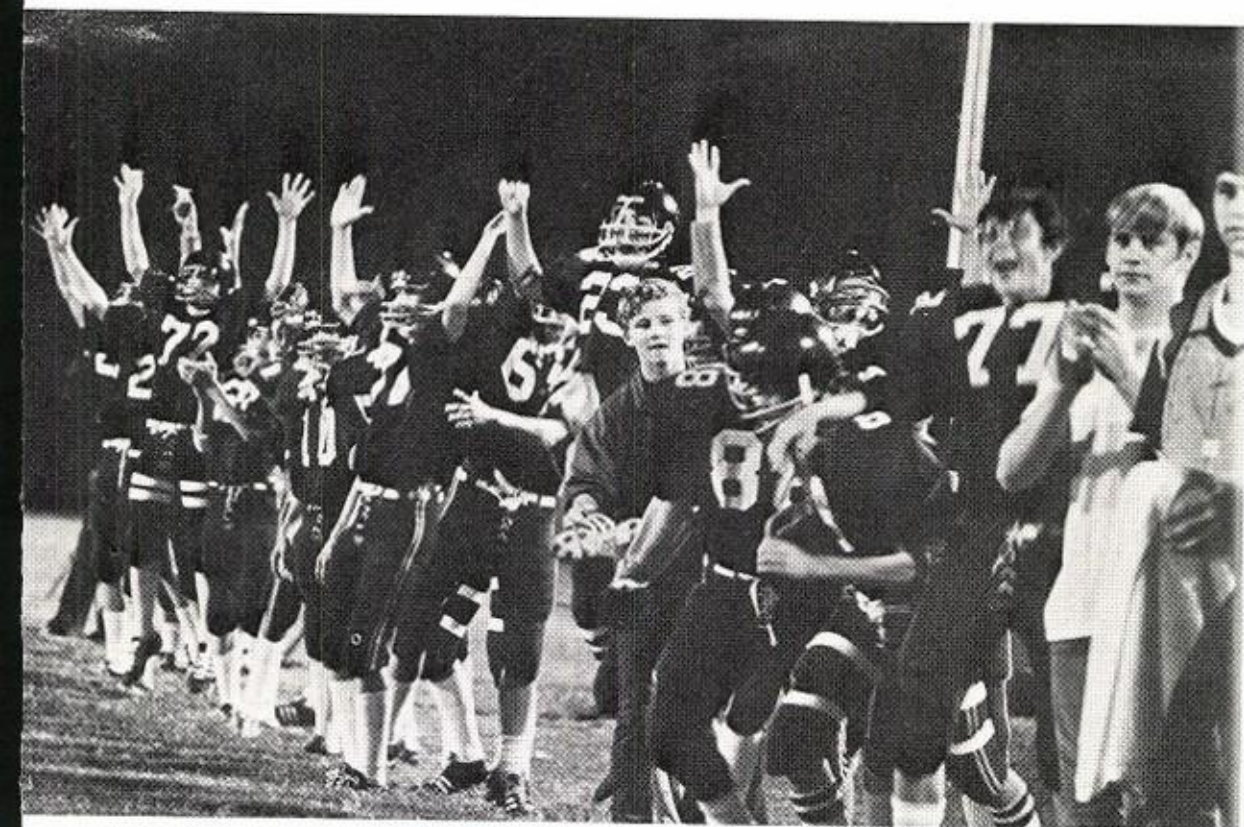

Setting their sights on individual improvement and helping the varsity prepare each week, a 2-7-1 team record should not be the measuring stick for the J.V. Playing on Thursdays before a few friends and fans, the J.V. gets ready for varsity competition. Owen McCoy (28) cuts behind his interference (top right).

Vernon Brown (37) tries to keep up with the ball (below) as Mark Wood (11) rushes with help from Bobby Wright (66) and Tip Ackly (19). Art Longshore (12) looks for the hole (lower right). Touchdown! The sideline erupts as the J.V. scores (opposite).

Sometimes the first year is the toughest. After going 3-6 for the season, the ninth graders can now hook it up, never look back and seek brighter days. Several frosh defenders high/low the ball carrier (opposite). Kyle Perkins (22) rolls for good yardage before the coaches have their say at halftime (center). After Coach Nickell gets things straightened out, Ricky Anderson (10) fires a pass (lower left). Fumble! The good defensive hit knocks the football free.

Simpson (22) and Allen (44) hurry to help Pollard (14) on the fast break (opposite above). Sammy Voss brings it down to set up the offense (opposite right).

Farmer Basketball

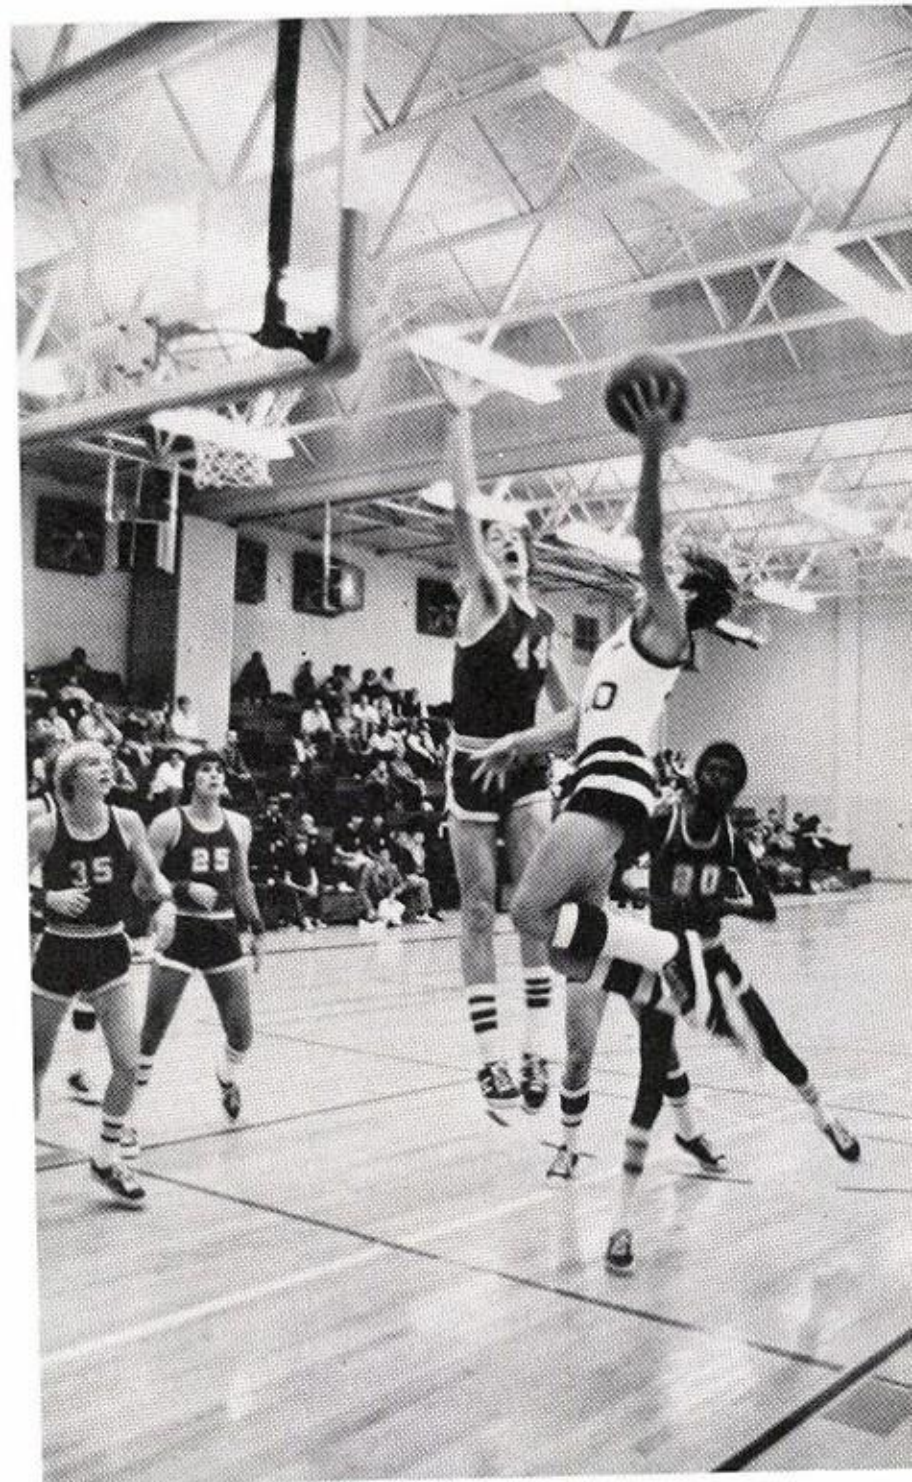

The Farmer Basketballers completed AAA competition as real district contenders. With a 17-10 overall record, the team played consistent ball throughout the season. Although North Garland eventually won the title, Lewisville kept things interesting for a lot of folks.

A Game of Nerves

Put 500 fans and two dedicated teams in the gym and you have a night of pressure-packed basketball. It's live action all the way and the players and spectators love it — but it makes old men of coaches (Ted Barnes lower left).

Such Sweet Revenge

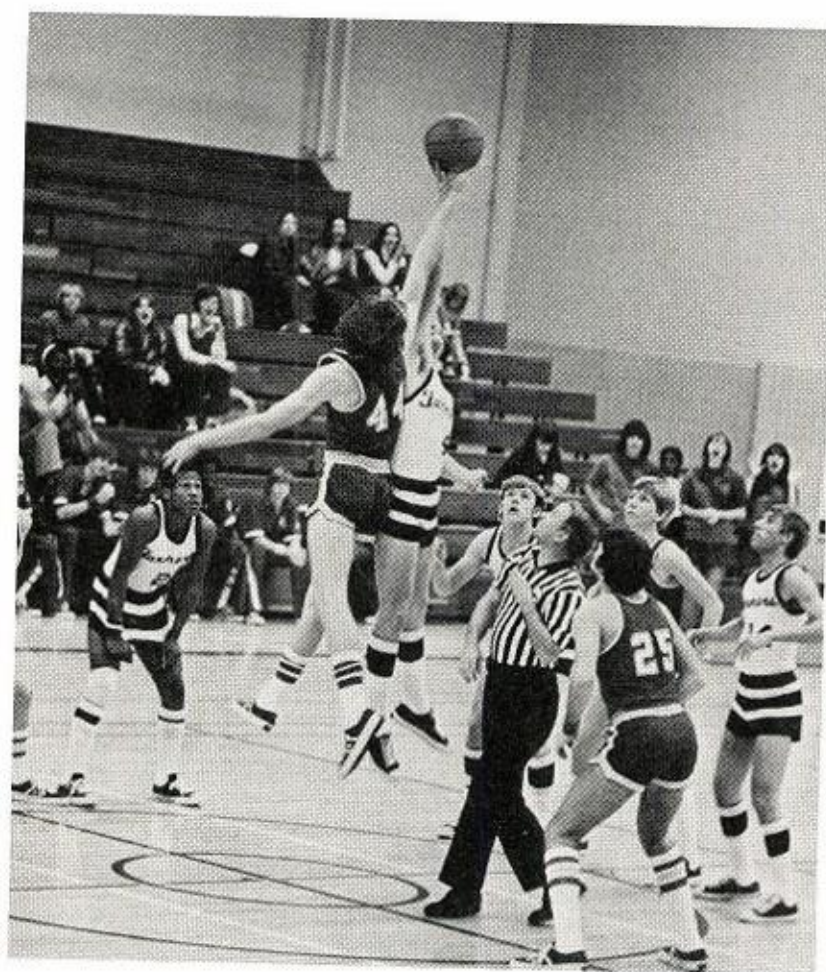

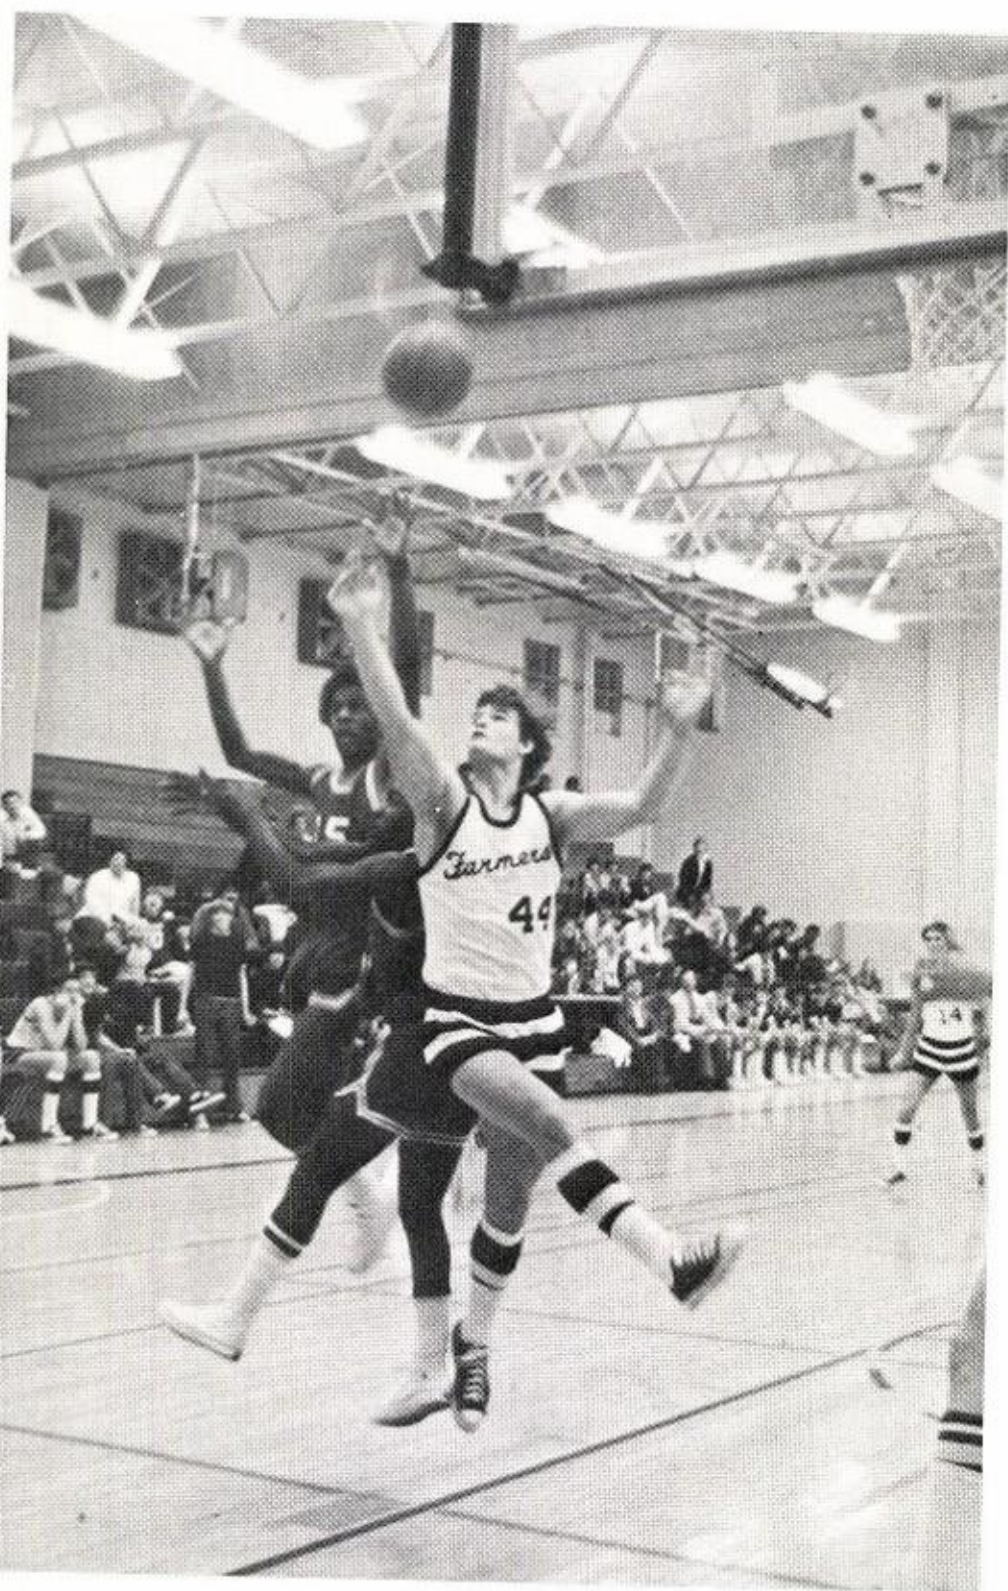

After a shocking loss in football, the Farmers were ready to go Lion hunting in the gym. And when the roundballers came through with a convincing 61-49 victory, the Farmer fans swarmed the court. This time it was our turn to cheer.

 Senior Doug Henley stretches to set a new school record in the long jump (right).

Track and Field

Tennis

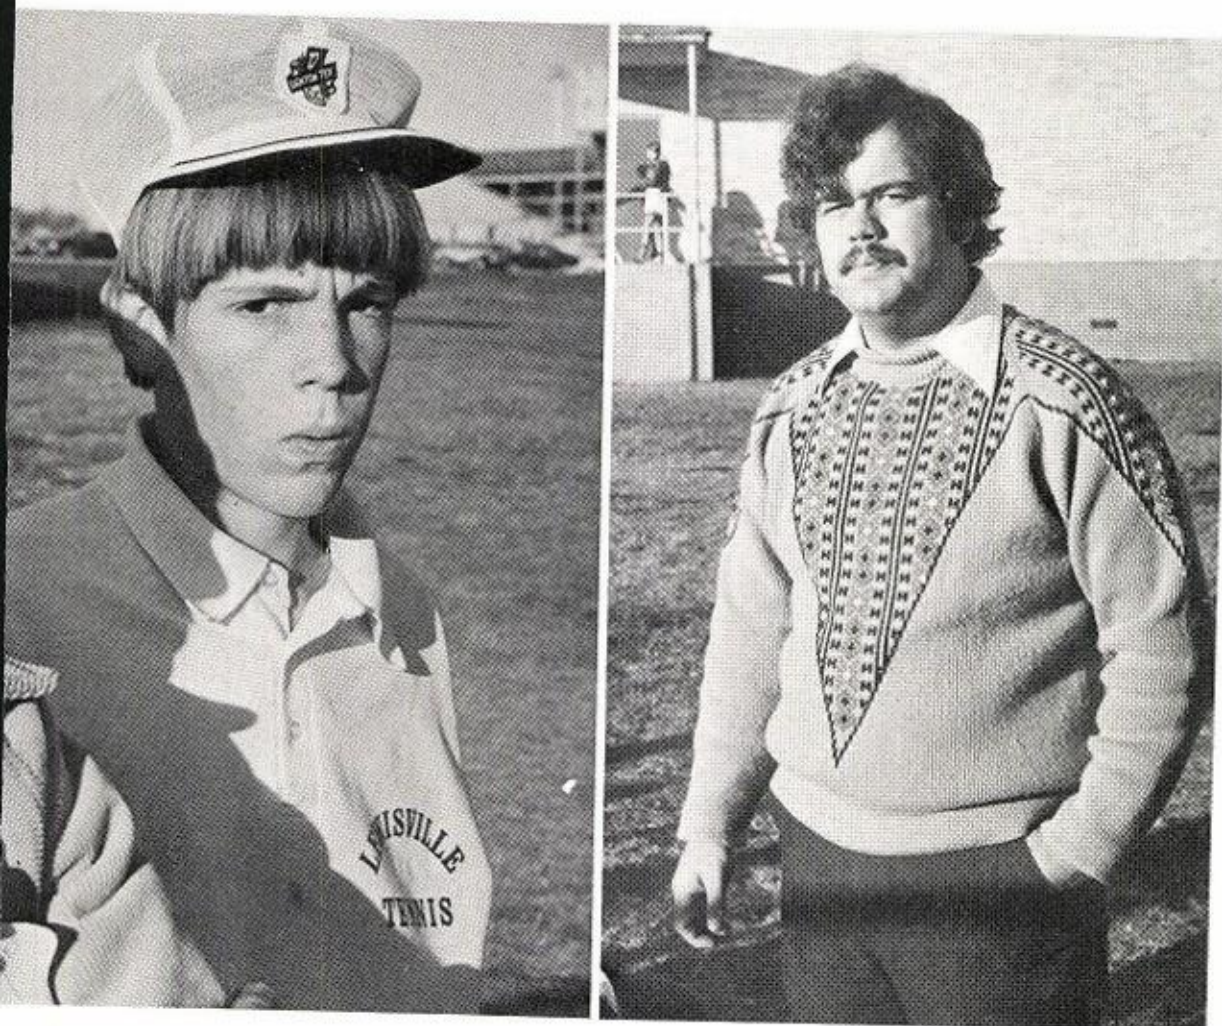

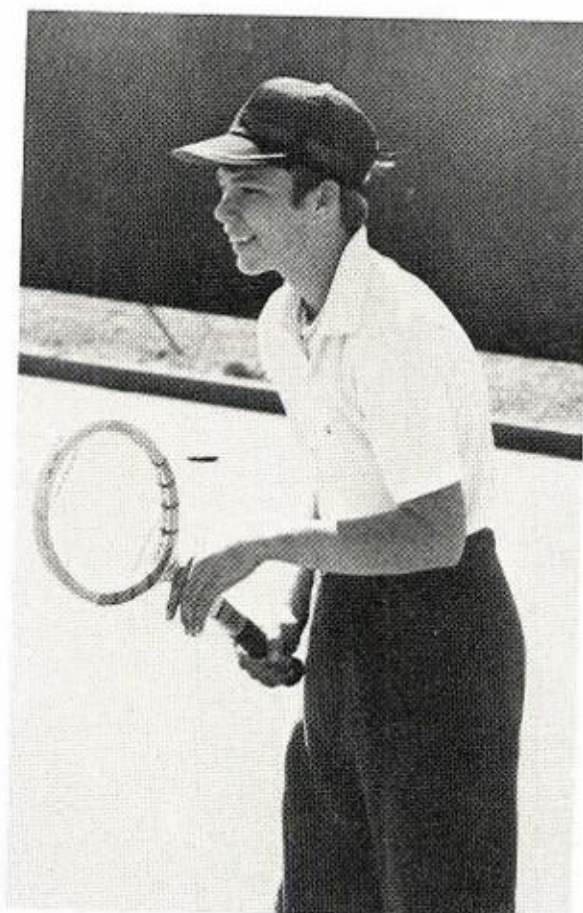

With new coaching and an off season program for the first time, the tennis team launched into what they hope will be a new era for the sport in Lewisville. Behind Liz Sutton (above) and David Blakeley (top right), the group played a full schedule. Chester Pannell (lower right) is just takin' it easy between matches.

TENNIS TEAM: (standing) T. Renshaw (Coach), D. Wilson, M. Kohlschmidt, R. Ward, D. Blakeley, C. Dowis, D. Elsby, (kneeling) C. Bradshaw, V. Turrubiarte, S. Turner, L. Keasler, L. Swanson, C. Perry, T. Dowis, L. Sutton, (sitting) C. Cobb, R. Pharris, C. Gilbreath, R. Wright, M. Jackson, C. Pannell, R. Farris.

Baseball

FARMER BASEBALL: L. Berg, J. Cunningham, M. Lindley, M. Boyd, M. Thompson, M. Angeli, R. Cade, B. Leaf, (kneeling) B. Brown, G. Duggan, T. Tittle, D. Pollard, J. K. Wood, G. Kerbow, (sitting) T. Bragg, T. Cox, R. Cade, B. Moseley, T. Clements, R. Olson.

A black and white photograph of a vintage mechanical cash register. The register is dark-colored with a prominent eagle emblem on the front panel, featuring a shield and the word "CASH" on a banner. Above the register, a sign reads "NO SALE". The register has a series of numbered keys (1-9, 0, and a small "12" key) and a coin tray at the bottom. The coin tray is open, revealing several compartments filled with coins. The background is a plain, light-colored surface.

One Last Word

It's 1974, a new tomorrow and an old yesterday. We experience change and watch it happening all around us. Our message to you through this yearbook is to be yourself and live your life to the fullest throughout the changes of this world. Co-editors Connie Boyd and Joyce Williams.

- Cindy -

To a great person who is nice when & if she wants to be nice. But, considering all the fun & stupid times we have had together I guess it all ended up to having fun. Well, I can't believe I am out of that stupid school which all the seniors & I did was raise ----- . But, if you get thinking about it, it is all sad & it was all 12 years of fun & meeting people & having some friends to look down on & then having some friends to look up to. Well, now I am on my own & I guess you might say free of school. But remember, to get anywhere & to be anyone you have to do it all on your own & some times just a little help from your friends. There is one thing to look up to if you have them & they are "friends." Friends are people to have & cherish so don't hurt a good friend. I hope you & "R.H." get it all straightened-out but all you have to do as usual is give him time to adjust to the world & people in it & you need to do that too. Cindy, there is one thing a woman wants:

"I want to feel like a real woman."

and that is a man to look up to you as a woman & not a piece of dirt or an animal. If he looks up to you then you can look up to him. When 2 people meet eye to eye then they learn how to care & be cared.

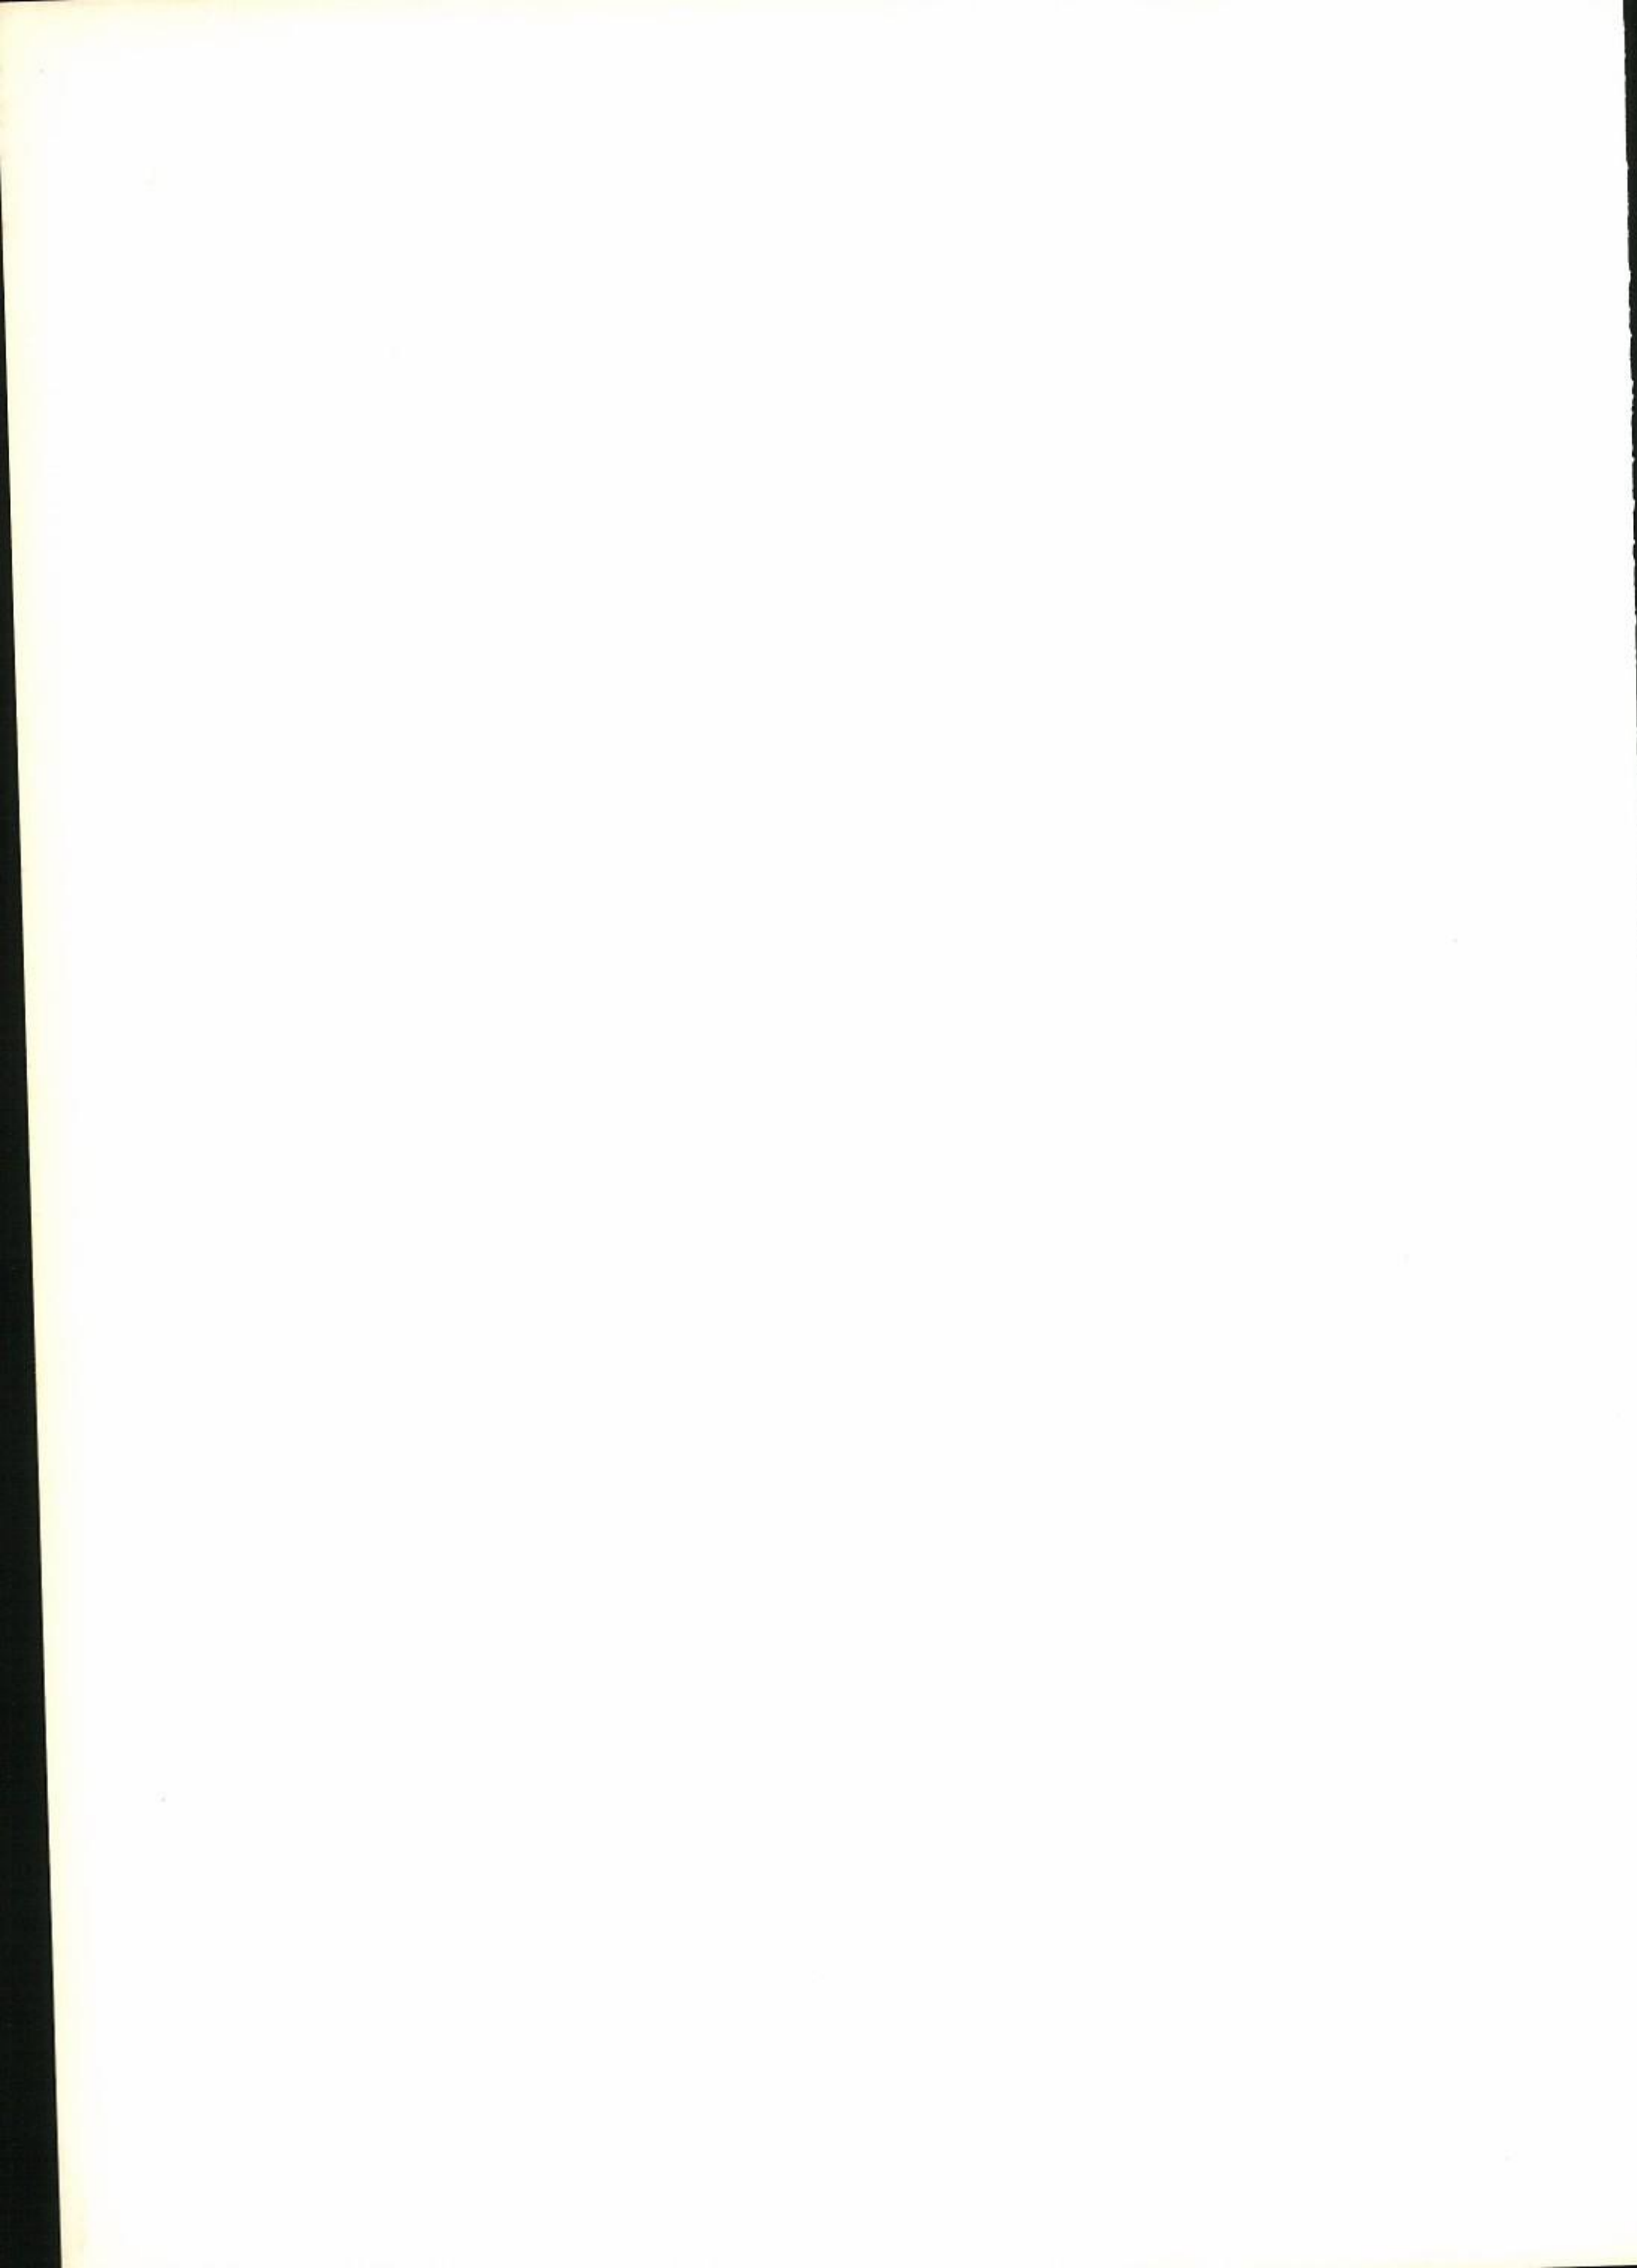

Cindy, the earth is your world (part of your world) & so take care of it & the people in it & don't hurt anyone & don't get hurt by anyone.

From one sis to another sis "People are human so treat them as human & then they'll treat you as human & not as an animal."

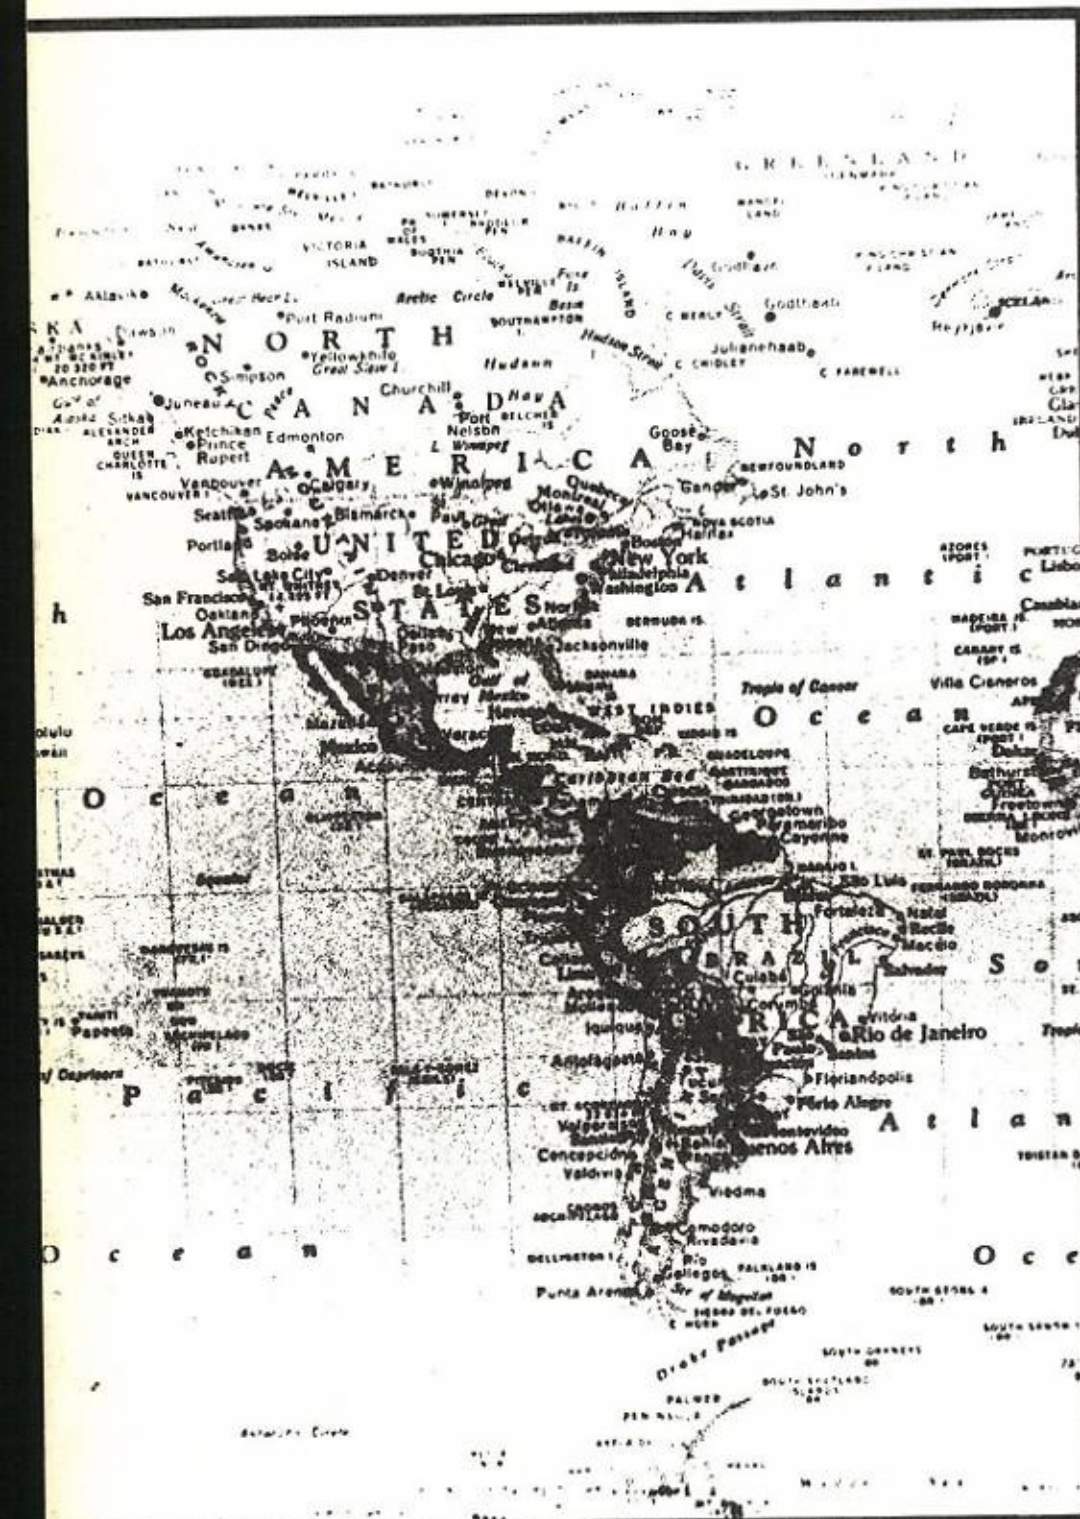

If R.H. wants you & needs you he can find you & if he still cares or cares at all then he knows where, & how to get intouched with you. Just remember don't ruin your life when he is having fun.

~~Remember~~ Remember "God Bless you"
